Case No. 22-cv-00248-BLF

ORDER STRIKING REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL ARBITRATION

13 Defendant PayPal has filed a reply in support of its motion to compel arbitration. ECF No.
14 33. The reply does not comply with this Court's standing order, which requires that footnotes be 15 used sparingly (if at all), be double-spaced, and not contain citations to legal authorities or 16 evidence. See Standing Order re Civil Cases § IV.F. The reply brief, which is at the 5-page
17 maximum already, see id. § IV.A.4, contains five single-spaced footnotes containing citations.

18 The reply brief is STRICKEN. PayPal may file a compliant reply brief no later than 19 Thursday, May 12, 2022. This is the third instance in which the Court has stricken a brief or 20 portion of a brief for violation of its standing orders. See ECF No. 24. The parties are 21 ADMONISHED to review and follow the Court's standing orders.

22 IT IS SO ORDERED.
